

GRANTS—Community: National Wetland Conservation Fund

Grant Name	Purpose	Eligibility	How to Apply	Important Dates	Documentation Required	Award	Additional Info	Contact Info	Grant Type
National Wetland Conservation Fund	The National Wetland Conservation Fund (NWCF) supports on-the-ground activities to restore and enhance wetlands in Canada. The objectives of the fund are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Restore degraded or lost wetlands on working and settled landscapes to achieve a net gain in wetland habitat area; •Enhance the ecological functions of existing degraded wetlands; •Scientifically assess and monitor wetland functions and ecological goods and services in order to further the above objectives to restore and/or enhance wetlands; and •Encourage the stewardship of Canada’s wetlands by industry and the stewardship and enjoyment of wetlands by the Canadian public. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Non-governmental organizations •Indigenous organizations and communities •Individuals •Universities •Conservation authorities •Private corporations •Provincial, territorial and municipal governments •Provincial Crown corporations Projects must take place on private lands, municipal lands, Provincial Crown lands, federal Crown lands in the Northwest Territories, Yukon, and Nunavut, or Indigenous land across Canada.	For more information, contact the program by email at: ec.FNCHM-NWCF.ec@ec.gc.ca.	Call for proposals are in the Fall of each year but no specific date was given.	Proposal	Funding is variable and depends on the project. Typical funding ranges from $50,000 to $250,000, with a maximum amount available of $500,000 per year per project. A minimum of 1:1 matching contributions (from non-federal sources) is required ($1 confirmed match for each $1 of NWCF funding).	https://www.ec.gc.ca/financement-funding/default.asp?lang=En&n=923047A0-1#_09	Contact For more information, contact the program by email at: ec.FNCHM-NWCF.ec@ec.gc.ca	Environment