

GRANTS—Community: The Community Transportation Assistance Program (CTAP)

Grant Name	Purpose	Eligibility	How to Apply	Important Dates	Documentation Required	Award	Additional Info	Contact Info	Grant Type
The Community Transportation Assistance Program (CTAP)	The Community Transportation Assistance Program (CTAP) covers a portion of the operating costs of a community-based inclusive transportation service. Services are developed and provided by non-profit organizations through	We accept applications from: Non-profit community-based organizations (incorporated groups) involved in the delivery of inclusive transportation services in low-population density areas of the province	Please contact the program administrator to apply.	Applications will be considered annually for funding within a fiscal year beginning April 1st and ending March 31st, subject to funding availability.	http://www.novascotia.ca/dma/funding/community/community-transportation-assistance-program.asp Program guidelines are available for download at the above noted link.	Subject to funding availability.	http://www.novascotia.ca/dma/funding/community/community-transportation-assistance-program.asp	Planning & Development Officer: 902-424-2088 Fax:902-424-0821 Email: Rene.Frigault@novascotia.ca	Transportation

	partnerships by coordinating public, private, non-profit, and volunteer resources and services. Inclusive transportation services are community-based public transportation systems in rural Nova Scotia aimed at improving transportation service to disabled, elderly and low-
--	---	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

	income Nova Scotians who need transportation to and from medical appointments, education, and recreation opportunities.
--	---	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--